Using is and are correctly

Worksheet 4

Using is and are is simple. You must look at the subject of the sentence. If the subject is plural use are and if the subject is singular use is. This is true even if is/are is used as part of a question.

Circle the word that best completes the sentence.

1. Is/Are you guys going to eat pancakes?
2. Is/Are they going to help with the dishes?
3. Is/Are the girls in grade three or four?
4. Is/Are Sammy leaving on his trip?
5. Is/Are George and Sarah playing outside?
6. Is/Are the class going on a field trip?
7. Is/Are my keys on the hook?
8. Is/Are my books stacked up?
9. Is/Are the clothes folded and put away?
10. Is/Are the cookies ready?
11. Is/Are the phone ringing?
12. Is/Are you ready to go for a run?
13. Is/Are they leaving at noon?
14. Is/Are the office open today?
15. Is/Are the packages ready to be mailed?

Answer Sheet

1. Is/Are you guys going to eat pancakes?
2. Is/Are they going to help with the dishes?
3. Is/Are the girls in grade three or four?
4. Is/Are Sammy leaving on his trip?
5. Is/Are George and Sarah playing outside?
6. Is/Are the class going on a field trip?
7. Is/Are my keys on the hook?
8. Is/Are my books stacked up?
9. Is/Are the clothes folded and put away?
10. Is/Are the cookies ready?
11. Is/Are the phone ringing?
12. Is/Are you ready to go for a run?
13. Is/Are they leaving at noon?
14. Is/Are the office open today?
15. Is/Are the packages ready to be mailed?