The Little Rabbit

The little rabbit made its way to a small burrow in the middle of the garden. It rolled inside like a furry ball and laid there for a short while.

Nap time is over, it thought. Out it came from its burrow and started to frolic around. It ran around the bushes and the garden hedge, the plants and the fountain walls playing cheerfully around.

"Fido, Come and have this", called out Leena. She held a red juicy carrot in one of her hands and a basket full of baby carrots in another.

"Mmmmm, these look yummmmy", thought Fido. It ran rapidly to her dear little mistress and started to gobble the carrots at once.

"My, my, Fido. Please eat slowly or you will choke your throat", said Leena.
