Jane and Munchy

Jane is a little girl. She has a pet kitten that she calls, "Munchy". Munchy has black, soft fur all over its body and has small green eyes. She is very delicate and Jane takes special care of her. She feeds her milk with a small bottle everyday and gives her a small chunk of fish meat to eat. Jane loves her kitten very much.

One morning when Jane woke up, she could not see Munchy in her basket. She went out into the garden, calling out aloud, "Munchy, Munchyyyy, where are youuu?" Suddenly, she heard a tiny mewling sound from somewhere. She looked around the bushes and the plants. She looked near the side of the door and on the fence of her house. She looked in the backyard. But she could not see Munchy anywhere.

At last she found her sitting under the warm sun on the rooftop of her house. "Oh little Munchy, how did you manage to reach up there?" she said.
