Nemo Has An Adventure

Nemo, the little blue fish is looking for Opal. Opal could not be seen anywhere. Nemo knows that the sea is dangerous. It is not safe to wander out alone.

The big blue whale or the fierce grey shark may catch sight of it anytime. Also, the nets laid down by the fishermen covered large areas of the sea. It may get tangled inside the net.

"I hope Opal is safe and sound", says Nemo. He swims across the ocean, searching among the sea weeds and cactus plants scattered all over the ocean bed.

He notices a wrecked ship lying across the ocean bed and he instantly looks inside its broken cabin. There was Opal, all alone gaping in amazement at a box of white pearls that were shining like moonlight in the dark waters.
