On The Island

The ship floats smoothly over the still waters. It is a sunny day and Peter can feel the warmth of the hot sun. So can his pal, Clark.

They reach a small island where they anchor their ship and set out to explore this new place.

This island is rocky and Peter and Clark both go up the rocky hill with great difficulty. As they reach the top, they see an entrance to a dark cave.

First, they hesitated, and then they decided to enter the cave. Peter shone his torch and both went inside. Their hearts were thumping loud. Nothing could be heard or seen.

They walked straight for a short while. Suddenly they heard a loud, "Grrrr, Grrrr". They thought it was a bear and they both turned back and ran outside.

To their surprise, it was actually a motor boat roaring outside in the sea!
