The Toy Shop

Sara stands in a queue with her mom. There are many people ahead of them and they all wait for the Grand Toy Shop to open. Today was the opening of this toy shop and Sara could just not wait to enter and buy a whole lot of toys for herself and for her friends.

"I will buy a talking doll for Maryam, a flying helicopter for Saad, a jigsaw puzzle for Annie and a beads set for myself", she says as she steps into the huge toy shop. She looks here and there, vast shelves lined up with the most colorful of toys, the brightest she had ever seen! And the shop was decorated beautifully with ribbons and balloons.

Sara and her mom, with the assistance of a salesgirl, look for the toys and find the perfect gifts for her friends. "This will surely make my friends happy", she says to her mom.
