Personal Pronouns

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun (a person, place, thing or idea).

An object personal pronoun tells who (or what) is having the action done to them in the sentence.

Examples of object pronouns:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Singular Object Pronouns</th>
<th>Plural Object Pronouns</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>me</td>
<td>us</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>you</td>
<td>you</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>him / her / it</td>
<td>them</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

For each sentence, replace the words with an object pronoun.

1. Vicky left it on the table for (Cindy) ________________.
2. Gage left (the football) ________________ by the door.
3. Tyler asked (Stef) ________________ to go to the store.
4. Scott crossed (the names) ________________ off the list.
5. Matt asked (Jared) ________________ to put the game away.
6. Ben loved (the new scooter) ________________
7. Jonah asked (Mike and I) ________________ to work tomorrow.
8. Noah fixed (the computer) ________________ quickly.
9. Jared asked (Cindy) ________________ for the money he earned.
10. The doorbell scared (Tiger) ________________ into barking.

For more worksheets visit www.letsshareknowledge.com