Answer Sheet

Examples given are just samples, as long as the type of writing is consistent with what is required the answer is correct.

1. Narrative: Trip to the library

The class went on a trip to the local library today. We got to listen to a lady read a very good book. I hope we can go to the library often. I love seeing all the books and hearing the adventurous tales.

2. Persuasive: Why soda is bad for children

Soda often contains lots of added sugar to give it flavor. Soda is not a healthy choice when picking a drink. Soda has been linked to all types of health issues, including obesity. Soda is probably a bad choice for everyone, but especially children.

3. Descriptive: A lovely sunset

The sun faded into the mountains in beautiful shades of red, orange, and yellow. The glowing ball seemed to magically disappear a small bit at a time. I loved sitting on the porch watching the sun go down as it meant the fireflies would soon come out to play.

4. Expository: Facts about dogs

Dogs are not only great pets, but serve many purposes. Dogs can be police officers that help track down people who are in trouble or even help people who are sick or blind. Dogs are highly intelligent and willing to please which makes them an ideal companion for most.
