Expository Writing
Worksheet 5

Look at the given topic. Write three supporting facts for each topic to practice expository writing.

1. Topic: The internet is a useful resource.
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________

2. Topic: Planting a garden can be beneficial.
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________

3. Topic: Recycling is good for the planet.
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________

4. Topic: Wearing a seatbelt is important.
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________

5. Topic: School is important for children.
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________

Visit www.letsshareknowledge.com for more worksheets
1. Topic: The internet is a useful resource.
   - Information on almost any topic can be found online.
   - Internet is available to almost everyone.
   - The internet offers many different views on a single topic.

2. Topic: Planting a garden can be beneficial.
   - Gardens provide a source of food for those who grow them.
   - Gardens can be cheaper to keep than buying food each week.
   - Gardening can be a source of exercise.

3. Topic: Recycling is good for the planet.
   - Recycling means less waste in dumps and trash piles.
   - Recycled materials can be turned into something else.
   - Recycling means mess trash free to harm animals in the wild.

4. Topic: Wearing a seatbelt is important.
   - Seatbelts can keep people safe during a crash.
   - It is illegal not to wear seatbelts.
   - Seatbelts can keep you from being thrown from a vehicle.

5. Topic: School is important for children.
   - School teaches children basic information.
   - School prepares children for life.
   - School lets children socialize and find friends.