Writing Styles: Persuasive Practice

Worksheet 8

When using persuasive writing you are expected to offer opinions on a topic, in support of or against. You are trying to get the reader to agree with your position. Choose one of the two given topics and create three supporting details for each. Remember to put your strongest argument first.

1. Red is the greatest color ever or Dogs are the best pets ever

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

2. Painting is a great way to have fun or Sports are a great way to have fun

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

3. Being indoors is better than being outdoors or Playing video games is better than reading a book.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

4. Pizza is the greatest food ever or Macaroni and cheese is the best food ever

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
Answer Sheet

Answers will vary greatly, but each detail should support the chosen topic.