Writing Styles: Narrative Writing

Worksheet 9

Narrative writing includes lots of details and adjectives to be descriptive. Fill in each blank with a descriptive word that fits and makes sense. Read your new story aloud for others.

One _____________ day a little turtle decided to go exploring. The turtle was ______________ and had a ______________ color to his body. His shell was ______________. This little turtle was named Finn. Finn wanted to see what types of activities he was good at in life.

First, Finn tried climbing. He walked up to a ______________ tree and lifted his ______________ leg to start climbing. Finn could not get very far because his shell was so ______________. Next Finn decided he would try to run a race. The race was ______________ and ______________. Finn could not run very fast because he was a turtle, but he tried very hard. Finn was ______________ but he did not give up. Finally, Finn decided to try swimming. Finn crawled to the ______________ lake and stood at the edge. He felt very ______________. ______________, he edged into the ______________ water. Finn immediately started swimming. He was really ______________ at swimming. Finn swam for hours. He had found something he ______________ and that he could do well because he kept trying.

Draw pictures to illustrate the adventures shown in your story.
Answers will vary, but should make sense. Pictures should also related to the story.