

Using Command Verbs in Conversations

Worksheet 3

Look at the conversations that have been started. Use the provided command verb to write out an appropriate sentence to finish the thought.

1. Will you be going to the party this weekend?

What do you need me to do to help?

(Buy) _____

2. I love sports.

What is your favorite activity?

(Jump) _____

3. When we go to the playground I want to try everything.

What should we do first?

(Swing) _____

4. I want to start a business.

I have no idea where to start.

(Open) _____

5. I am not sure what to do today.

I have no plans but want to do something fun.

(Go) _____

6. I have three full buckets of paint.

I want to paint something, what do you think?

(Paint) _____

7. This math is much simpler than expected.

Do you understand how to work the problems?

(Explain) _____

Answer Sheet (Answers will vary slightly between students, but must make sense in the conversation)

1. Will you be going to the party this weekend?

What do you need me to do to help?

(Buy) Buy some chips, salsa, and taco shells please.

2. I love sports.

What is your favorite activity?

(Jump) Jump into the ring and I will show you how I box.

3. When we go to the playground I want to try everything.

What should we do first?

(Swing) Swing from the highest swings so you can feel like you are flying.

4. I want to start a business.

I have no idea where to start.

(Open) Open a small store so you can sell your crafts.

5. I am not sure what to do today.

I have no plans but want to do something fun.

(Go) Go to the movies with us at eight tonight.

6. I have three full buckets of paint.

I want to paint something, what do you think?

(Paint) Paint the clubhouse in bright colors.

7. This math is much simpler than expected.

Do you understand how to work the problems?

(Explain) Explain how you got the answer for number five please.

