

Using did and done correctly

Worksheet 1

Did and Done are tenses of to do. Done is a past participle of to do and is accompanied by a form of to have or to be (ex. I have done my homework). Did is the past tense of to do. It is a verb (ex. I did my homework).

Circle the word that best completes the sentence.

1. Did/Done I do this problem right?
2. I have did/done all of my homework for the week.
3. What did/done you do while on vacation?
4. They did/done all the raking for us.
5. We did/done all we could to help out.
6. The video will show you how it is did/done.
7. The report was did/done on time.
8. He has did/done a great job.
9. She did/done her art project early.
10. Have they did/done the painting yet?
11. She has did/done a perfect job on the report.
12. We did/done the sweeping this morning.
13. The teacher did/done a lecture on dolphins.
14. My horse did/done a perfect jump.
15. The dog did/done a number on the toy.

Answer Sheet

1. Did/Done I do this problem right?
2. I have did/done all of my homework for the week.
3. What did/done you do while on vacation?
4. They did/done all the raking for us.
5. We did/done all we could to help out.
6. The video will show you how it is did/done.
7. The report was did/done on time.
8. He has did/done a great job.
9. She did/done her art project early.
10. Have they did/done the painting yet?
11. She has did/done a perfect job on the report.
12. We did/done the sweeping this morning.
13. The teacher did/done a lecture on dolphins.
14. My horse did/done a perfect jump.
15. The dog did/done a number on the toy.