

Using did and done correctly

Worksheet 2

Did and Done are tenses of to do. Done is a past participle of to do and is accompanied by a form of to have or to be (ex. I have done my homework). Did is the past tense of to do. It is a verb (ex. I did my homework).

Circle the word that best completes the sentence.

1. Have I did/done the math problems correctly?
2. She will have all of the reading did/done by noon.
3. The clothes will need to be did/done before we leave.
4. Have you did/done your chores yet?
5. We did/done a five mile walk in class.
6. I did/done everything I could to make it right.
7. We did/done all the hard work, but got no credit.
8. Marie has did/done all the artwork for the show.
9. The baby has not did/done that before.
10. I had did/done that ride three times before.
11. The mechanic has already did/done the wiring on the car.
12. The changes are already did/done.
13. Mona has always did/done her own thing.
14. The cat did/done the trick to get a treat.
15. Sarah has did/done two different speeches this year.

Answer Sheet

1. Have I did/done the math problems correctly?
2. She will have all of the reading did/done by noon.
3. The clothes will need to be did/done before we leave.
4. Have you did/done your chores yet?
5. We did/done a five mile walk in class.
6. I did/done everything I could to make it right.
7. We did/done all the hard work, but got no credit.
8. Marie has did/done all the artwork for the show.
9. The baby has not did/done that before.
10. I had did/done that ride three times before.
11. The mechanic has already did/done the wiring on the car.
12. The changes are already did/done.
13. Mona has always did/done her own thing.
14. The cat did/done the trick to get a treat.
15. Sarah has did/done two different speeches this year.