

Using did and done correctly

Worksheet 3

Did and Done are tenses of to do. Done is a past participle of to do and is accompanied by a form of to have or to be (ex. I have done my homework). Did is the past tense of to do. It is a verb (ex. I did my homework).

Circle the word that best completes the sentence.

1. I did/done the wash yesterday, now it is your turn.
2. I have already did/done it
3. He did/done well for a beginner.
4. They did/done bring their work, didn't they?
5. Thanks, I could not have did/done this without you!
6. She did/done not say if she could make it today.
7. You have did/done a wonderful job!
8. I thought that he had did/done it already.
9. Would you have did/done that if you had known the rules?
10. I have not did/done anything wrong.
11. Ben did/done three laps then quit.
12. Gina did/done start the play, but I finished it.
13. I did/done the best on the test.
14. Tara has did/done her best, but we need help.
15. The puppies have did/done tricks before.

Answer Sheet

1. I did/done the wash yesterday, now it is your turn.
2. I have already did/done it
3. He did/done well for a beginner.
4. They did/done bring their work, didn't they?
5. Thanks, I could not have did/done this without you!
6. She did/done not say if she could make it today.
7. You have did/done a wonderful job!
8. I thought that he had did/done it already.
9. Would you have did/done that if you had known the rules?
10. I have not did/done anything wrong.
11. Ben did/done three laps then quit.
12. Gina did/done start the play, but I finished it.
13. I did/done the best on the test.
14. Tara has did/done her best, but we need help.
15. The puppies have did/done tricks before.