

Using did and done correctly

Worksheet 4

Did and Done are tenses of to do. Done is a past participle of to do and is accompanied by a form of to have or to be (ex. I have done my homework). Did is the past tense of to do. It is a verb (ex. I did my homework).

Circle the word that best completes the sentence.

1. Mary did/done the drawing, I did/done the painting.
2. I need to get my hair did/done for the dance.
3. I have did/done the best I could with what I had.
4. I did not do it, he did/done it!
5. Anna has did/done most of the work, but we need to finish it.
6. Hannah has did/done all the decorations, we need to cook.
7. Have you did/done the snacks yet?
8. Which problems have you did/done?
9. The dishes have been did/done, but the floors are a mess.
10. The game did/done not go as planned.
11. He asked if I had ever did/done a solo before.
12. He has did/done all the writing for the play.
13. Have you ever did/done a collage by yourself?
14. I've did/done six hours so far, but need more.
15. The car did/done not have any seatbelts.

Answer Sheet

1. Mary did/done the drawing, I did/done the painting.
2. I need to get my hair did/done for the dance.
3. I have did/done the best I could with what I had.
4. I did not do it, he did/done it!
5. Anna has did/done most of the work, but we need to finish it.
6. Hannah has did/done all the decorations, we need to cook.
7. Have you did/done the snacks yet?
8. Which problems have you did/done?
9. The dishes have been did/done, but the floors are a mess.
10. The game did/done not go as planned.
11. He asked if I had ever did/done a solo before.
12. He has did/done all the writing for the play.
13. Have you ever did/done a collage by yourself?
14. I've did/done six hours so far, but need more.
15. The car did/done not have any seatbelts.