

Using do and does correctly

Worksheet 1

Do and does are used when asking yes/no questions. Which word you choose depends on the subject. This is simple to determine. Use do when the subject is I, you, we, or they. Use does with the third person such as he, she, or it.

Circle the word that best completes the sentence.

1. Which dress do/does you like better?
2. Do/Does we have to cut the grass before we leave?
3. Do/Does she work with your father?
4. Do/Does she have a car we could borrow?
5. What time do/does they get off of work?
6. Do/Does she like pink or yellow flowers?
7. Do/Does your favorite painting have any yellow in it?
8. When do/does he get to visit again?
9. Do/Does your mother know you are leaving?
10. When do/does the sleepover start?
11. When do/does you expect to get started?
12. What do/does she expect you to do?
13. He do/does a mile of running each morning, doesn't he?
14. Where do/does you want to go on vacation?
15. Where do/does she want to go for break?

Answer Sheet

1. Which dress do/does you like better?
2. Do/Does we have to cut the grass before we leave?
3. Do/Does she work with your father?
4. Do/Does she have a car we could borrow?
5. What time do/does they get off of work?
6. Do/Does she like pink or yellow flowers?
7. Do/Does your favorite painting have any yellow in it?
8. When do/does he get to visit again?
9. Do/Does your mother know you are leaving?
10. When do/does the sleepover start?
11. When do/does you expect to get started?
12. What do/does she expect you to do?
13. He do/does a mile of running each morning, doesn't he?
14. Where do/does you want to go on vacation?
15. Where do/does she want to go for break?