

Using do and does correctly

Worksheet 5

Do and does are used in many different sentence types. Which word you choose depends on the subject. This is simple to determine. Use do when the subject is I, you, we, or they. Use does with the third person such as he, she, or it. The negative form of do is do not and the negative form of does is does not.

Circle the word that best completes the sentence.

1. Do/Does the cat listen when you give commands?
2. Would they prefer to do/does art or music?
3. The flashlight do/does not have any batteries.
4. When do/does we need to leave?
5. Do/Does the stove look hot to you?
6. Do/Does you get the newspaper every day?
7. Where do/does the waterfall start?
8. When do/does the concert tickets go on sale?
9. When do/does I need to put the laundry in the dryer?
10. The bridge do/does not look safe.
11. Will you go out and do/does the errands?
12. This do/does not count as homework.
13. Where do/does the blanket go?
14. Where do/does the cats sleep?
15. Carlos do/does not like doing pull ups.

Answer Sheet

1. Do/does the cat listen when you give commands?
2. Would they prefer to do/does art or music?
3. The flashlight do/does not have any batteries.
4. When do/does we need to leave?
5. Do/Does the stove look hot to you?
6. Do/Does you get the newspaper every day?
7. Where do/does the waterfall start?
8. When do/does the concert tickets go on sale?
9. When do/does I need to put the laundry in the dryer?
10. The bridge do/does not look safe.
11. Will you go out and do/does the errands?
12. This do/does not count as homework.
13. Where do/does the blanket go?
14. Where do/does the cats sleep?
15. Carlos do/does not like doing pull ups.