

Using he and she correctly

Worksheet 1

He and she are nominative pronouns. Use the nominative case of a pronoun when the pronoun is the subject of your sentence. When doing this it is always best to refer to the person by a name first, but this is not always necessary, it is just the use of proper manners.

Place either he or she in the blank to complete the sentence.

1. Ian was trying out for basketball and hoped ____ made it.
2. Sarah wore a red bow every day, ____ said it was her favorite.
3. The little girl was lost, ____ could not find her mother.
4. ____ was the oldest daughter in the family.
5. Peter won the spelling bee and ____ was very happy.
6. Bandit is a boy puppy, ____ loves to chew up toys.
7. Andre is a very kind boy, ____ enjoys helping others.
8. ____ likes to pick flowers; Cindy enjoys the outdoors.
9. My dad is very tall, ____ is over six feet.
10. My mother wears glasses, but ____ has green eyes.
11. Bryan is a talented singer and ____ also plays baseball.
12. The fox took care of her babies, ____ was a good mother.
13. _____ loved being a grandmother.
14. Her aunt was so silly, ____ kept making faces.
15. They dressed the baby in pink to show ____ was a girl.
