

Using he and she correctly

Worksheet 5

He and she are nominative pronouns. Use the nominative case of a pronoun when the pronoun is the subject of your sentence.

Place either he or she in the blank to complete the sentence.

1. Did ____ tell her mother she was leaving?
2. Is ____ leaving with his brothers?
3. Does your grandmother know ____ needs to make dinner?
4. Don't tell her that ____ is having a party.
5. ____ went to her best friend's house.
6. ____ got hit and then he fell over.
7. Frank is your uncle, ____ is the oldest.
8. ____ is your grandfather.
9. Will ____ be here for her birthday?
10. Sue found out ____ was going to be a sister.
11. ____ loves playing dress up with the other girls.
12. There were three brothers, ____ was the middle one.
13. Martin said ____ needed help with his tie.
14. My niece said ____ loved riding her bike.
15. Roger is my cousin, ____ has one sister.

Answer Sheet

1. Did _she_ tell her mother she was leaving?
2. Is _he_ leaving with his brothers?
3. Does your grandmother know _she_ needs to make dinner?
4. Don't tell her that _she_ is having a party.
5. _She_ went to her best friend's house.
6. _He_ got hit and then he fell over.
7. Frank is your uncle, _he_ is the oldest.
8. _He_ is your grandfather.
9. Will _she_ be here for her birthday?
10. Sue found out _she_ was going to be a sister.
11. She_ loves playing dress up with the other girls.
12. There were three brothers, _he_ was the middle one.
13. Martin said _he_ needed help with his tie.
14. My niece said _she_ loved riding her bike.
15. Roger is my cousin, _he_ has one sister.

